ABOUT THE STATE

The new Lincoln ponies are in great demand in Burlington. Many are being sold at five cents each.

The Sanford grist mill at Randolph, one of the largest in that section of Vermont, has been purchased by Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Morse, Mr. and Mrs.
M. Morse, and Mark Morse of Plainfield.

The new system of oiling the streets at Northfield seems to have met with satisfaction so far, but the results of the scheme have not had time to develop yet. It is thought the cost will not be greater than the system of sprinkling.

A fire which occurred Sunday morning at Bethel destroyed W. H. Edmunds' lumber shed and 20,000 feet of red birch lumber. It was impossible to save the shed. The loss was about $2,000. It is thought that the fire was set by tramps.

The potato crop, which was thought to be nearly spoiled at Middlesex, has been greatly benefited by the recent rain.
Farmers in that section expected a large crop, but the long drought had caused the potato crop to fall off in a large degree.

Orrin James of Swanton Center drove into St. Albans last week and when he went out a little later found that someone had swapped harness and wagons with him and what he was left with was hardly enough to get home with. He has not yet recovered his property.

Northfield is to have another new granite firm. Dewey & McMaster of Barre have purchased the shed vacated by J.
L. Burns, when he moved into his new shed, and are to occupy half of it. The new firm has just purchased a 20-horsepower electric motor of R. L. Britain, which will be installed at once and work will be begun soon.

Charles Reed of Shelburne had his collar bone broken as the result of a collision between two teams at Shelburne Saturday night. He was returning from Burlington with his family when they were run into by another team and the occupants of both were thrown out. None of the party was injured except Mr. Reed.

A summer guest at the Vaughan cottage, Point of Pines, Lake Bomoseen, Mrs. O. Holmes of New York, while in bathing last Thursday afternoon, had a narrow escape from drowning. The lady was not able to swim and put about her neck a pair of water wings. The wings became displaced and dropped to her waist line, leaving up that portion of her body, her two extremities being under water. While the water was comparatively shallow, she became much frightened and swallowed quite a little of the lake.

Charles I. Holmes of Charlotte, who has one of the best apple orchards in Vermont, estimates that he will pick between 3,000 and 7,000 barrels of apples this fall. This result will not be brought about by a fair wind, but by knowledge of soils and proper methods of cultivation. Against the advice of his neighbors, Mr. Holmes purchased several carloads of lime last spring, which he spread liberally under the trees. The ground was then plowed and the operation was repeated from time to time.
While the other Charlotte apple growers will have hardly enough fruit for their own consumption, Mr. Holmes is getting ready his supply of barrels in which to store his bumper crop.

TOOK FINAL VOWS.

Five Young Women Were in an Impressive Service.

Burlington, Aug. 18.—An impressive service was held at the chapel of Mount St.
Mary's Academy yesterday morning when five young women took their final vows in religion in the presence of a large company of relatives and friends.
The ceremony of profession was performed by Rev. P. J. Barrett assisted by Rev. J. F. Gillis of the Cathedral parish. An eloquent and timely sermon was preached by Rev. W. P. Crossy.

The novices who were admitted to their final vows in the Sisters of Mercy were as follows: Miss Anna Corley of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of Burlington, whose name in religion will be Sister Columba; Miss Mary Phelan of Ludlow, to be known as Sister Monica; Miss Julia Keating of Ludlow, (Sister Ignatia); Miss Agatha Putnam of New York City, (Sister M. Raphael); and Miss Marie Alerie of Quebec, (Sister Euphrasia).

The chapel was appropriately decorated for the occasion and a special musical programme was rendered by the convent choir assisted by Misses Agnes and Emma Mulqueen and Mrs. John Cross.

Selected in the sanctuary during the ceremony were Rev. J. W. Dwyer of Ludlow, Rev. Fr. Doyle of New York, Rev. Mr. Welch of this city.

Cockney Talk.

An Englishman who had grown tired of his tight little life came to this country to teach school. One day while rehearsing a class of boys in spelling the word "saucer" was given out. The first boy missed it, likewise the second and the third. The fourth boy, spelling it correctly was asked to go to the blackboard and write it so that all could see how it was spelled. Pointing to the word the teacher said:

"This is the way you spell it. Easy isn't it. Just a hees, a hay, a hell, two hoes and a hen."

In writing the word the boy had placed the letters conspicuously far apart. This peculiarity did not escape the eye of the master and he asked:
"Why did you write it that way?"
"Why didn't you place the hay nearer the hell?"

"Oh I'm afraid it would burn up!" burst out the irrepressible youngster.
As he dug his hands into his pockets.
The next word missed was "Venice."
It was spelled with two n's.

"What would you say if I told you there was but one hen in Venice?" asked the pedagogue as he surveyed the class critically above the rim of his glasses.

"I should say the price of eggs would be pretty high," came the answer from the boy who stood at the foot of the class.—Housekeeper.
